Spice Up Your Operations by Blending Our Expertise with Yours

Providing a unique dining experience for your students starts with a flexible procurement strategy. Avendra's programs and services help you deliver what your guests expect on the menu—diverse selections, healthy choices, and quality products.

Avendra is not a contract service provider, so we give self-operator colleges and universities the ingredients to optimize operations while retaining full control:

- Cost-management expertise
- Flexible purchasing programs
- Supply chain best practices
- Good, better, best product tiers
- Over 900 suppliers
- Quality assurance

Avendra creates customized solutions spiced with insight and expertise. We work with you behind the scenes so you can focus on your priorities—your customers.

Backed by $3 billion in purchasing power and deep supply chain expertise, Avendra helps you structure food and beverage procurement strategies that go right to the bottom line.
